The Last Patrol

In September 2009, the second platoon of Charlie Company arrived in Afghanistan with 42 men. Ten months later, nearly half had been killed or wounded, mostly in the Arghandab Valley—a key to controlling southern Afghanistan. Now these 82nd Airborne troops were getting ready to leave the Arghandab behind. They had one more dangerous job to do: a joint mission with the untried artillery unit that would replace them patrolling the fields, orchards, and villages they called the Devil's Playground.

Mugshot Report

Inmate Name : PAYNE, TIMOTHY FRANCIS
Inmate # : 00001767

As a partner at Nicholas, Perot, Smith, Bernhardt & Zosh, Michael concentrates his legal practice on workers' compensation, personal injury, and Social Security Disability. He occasionally handles criminal defense and matrimonial law cases, but dedicates the majority of his time to helping injured New York workers.

Since 2000, Michael has served as an Army Reserve JAG Officer. In 2011, he was ordered to active duty and completed an 11-month tour with 8 months deployed in Iraq in support of Operation New Dawn, a deployment which began only days after the birth of his son. In July of 2015 Michael was promoted to Major in the United States Army Reserves, and in May of 2016 he was the keynote speaker at the town of Alden's Memorial Day ceremony to honor fallen soldiers.

Michael is a member of the New York State Defenders Association. In his spare time, he enjoys playing golf and softball.
